the bank and jammed Fisher in between the pommel of the saddle.
and by his son he only lived long to tell the story.

THE HEROINE OF FORTY ROBBERIES. Tells the Story of Her Life in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch.

Weather forecast for twenty-four hours commencing at 8 a. m. to-day for Missouri: Fair; cooler; variable winds, becoming northerly.

THE PARNELL Investigation should not be called a trial, but a condemnation proceeding.

Is the gambler persist in fooling with the muzzle of the court, they will be found after an explosion some day dead to citizenship and the world in the seclusion of the Penitentiary.

The gamblers declare that they are not satisfied with the knock-out they received in the Circuit Court. That was nothing to the punishment they will receive in the Criminal Court. We venture to assert that they will be more than satisfied before the court is through with them.

The estimate of the cost of partially opening a water route from the Mississippi River to Chicago amounts to $15,000,000. This estimate covers the easiest part of the route and represents an enormous total which would be expended, should the plan be adopted by Congress, for the sole benefit of Chicago and to impose her sewage on other portions of the country.

AS AMERICAN farmers thresh their big crop of wheat this year let them remember that the price they are to get for it will not be fixed by our "home market" tariff, but by free trade England. It is only when the farmer goes to buy goods and utensils that he finds prices fixed by our home market tariff and by the trusts which it fosters and clothes with monopoly powers.

Chicago has just experienced the utility of a Democratic Mayor with some brains and backbone. An ordinance passed by an overwhelming vote granting an outrageous street franchise to a Standard Oil pipe line was so vigorously opposed in Mayor Cameron's veto message that his veto was sustained by a vote of 41 to 7—a remarkable reversal.

In a city full of physicians and surgeons capable of conducting a post-mortem examination it is hardly the proper thing for the Coroner to keep a body lying twelve hours at the Morgue before making any attempt to decide for the police the question whether a bullet had entered the mouth and come out at the back of the head, and had entered at the back of the head and lodged in the brain.

Mayor NOONAN is back at his desk chuck full of ozone, revived energy and new ideas. He has told the public through the columns of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH what he has in store for St. Louis, and we may say that the public awaits developments with expectant interest. The Mayor has a glorious opportunity to clinch his grip on his friends and confound his enemies, by making himself solid with the people.

The fact that the Emperor of Brazil was shot at shows that even a good emperor is not safe from assassination, but it should not deter rulers from trying to be as good as possible. Two Presidents of the United States have died from assassins' bullets and there are always impostors looking for prominent victims. But it is better to be the target of an occasional lunatic with the people as a body guard, than the target of the people with a paid army as a body guard.

TERMINAL FACILITIES. As we understood the policy outlined by President WALSH, the settlement of the North St. Louis terminal question, if proposed only a perfectly fair deal for all applicants for terminal facilities—to keep the commerce of this city open to all comers on equitable terms, and to avoid the creation of another terminal monopoly.

It was distinctly stated that the recommendation and postponement of the C. & B. Q. bill was solely for the purpose of reaching an adjustment of the terminal question that would best promote the interests of St. Louis commerce, by dealing liberally with all companies and giving no exclusive or undue advantage to any.

The Municipal Assembly will do well to adhere carefully to this policy and beware in the meantime of any inconsistent concessions to other companies. The acquisition of the great C. & B. Q. system, free from any existing terminal monopoly, will be a great thing for St. Louis. It is spending a great deal of its own money to get into St. Louis on such terms. It is coming to bring her a great increase in business and business facilities, not to cramp what she already has, and it is not to her interest that it should be fenced out or be cramped by the exactions of any terminal monopoly whatever.

HOW CAN HE LEAVE US? The newspaper fraternity in New York may think it only harmless fun to boom Col. ELIOT F. SHEPARD for the Russian mission, but they are venturing upon dangerous ground. President HARRISON is also a serious-minded person, and not more apt than Col. SHEPARD himself to see the funny side of the proposition.

Col. SHEPARD is the recognized son-in-law and organist of the Vanderbilt-Dewey family of the party. The mingled odors of the sanctuary and of last fall's boodle campaign cluster about him, as fresh and sweet as about WAXMANER. He can draw checks that startle Wall street, and he can discover more treason afoot and on horseback among the poor whites of this country than all the other editors in the business.

It is for such as he that the Republican party exists, and, could the country spare him, the present administration could not refuse to send him, at his own request, to encourage the Russian autocrat in the holy work of crushing out treason, or to get some hints from the sanctified head of the Russian Church as to the orthodox Christian methods of dealing with horny-handed malcontents and rebels.

But if he should be sent away from us who could guard the Sabbath from desecration or print such Bible texts for us or keep loyalty's alarm bell forever sounding such warning peals as he does? Who is so quick to discover the hidden hand of treason, the secret traitorous work that Satan still finds for the idle hands that are not kept busy clipping coupons and counting dividends?

Doubtless the czar would welcome Col. SHEPARD as a man after his own heart, and accept his appointment as the Great Republic's condemnation of all Russians who rebel or conspire against an intensely religious despotism. But as the traitors are seeking to destroy our own Government, should the plan be adopted by Congress, for the sole benefit of Chicago and to impose her sewage on other portions of the country.

system of balloting, but Pennsylvania, where it is most needed, is without it under the domination of millionaire manufacturers, who want to control their employees' votes.

The Civil Service Commissioners have supplied the Administration with a number of excellent reasons for the removal of Postmaster PAUL of Milwaukee through an investigation of his office. The investigation shows that he is not a good civil service reformer, and this is an unpardonable sin in a Democrat. Of course Mr. PAUL would have been removed for his original sin of being a Democrat, but the results of the investigation will smooth his pathway to the block.

Don Forget. From the New York Herald. Senator Don Cameron observes that when he decides to retire from public life "the public will certainly find it a most desirable stand to take through newspaper gossip." If the newspapers do not notice the event it will not become known to the people at large until the time comes to elect Senator Cameron's successor. Most of the statesmen who affect to despise newspaper gossip owe to the press whatever publicity attaches to their careers. When the newspapers drop Don Cameron's name he will return to the obscurity from which his father's shrewdness and his own money lifted him.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM. Performe Allyn. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I wish to call attention of the authorities to the disgraceful state of affairs in the alley between Fourteenth street and Blair avenue, Cass avenue and O'Fallon street. The filth in the gutter is a foot high in some places. It contains a lot of dead cats and rats that are in a mortifying condition and left there entirely to rot. To verify this statement, let one stand at the mouth of the alley on O'Fallon street when the wind is blowing south, and he will soon receive a $200 gift.

Forest Park Links. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: As the present links in Forest Park are too small and encumbered for pleasurable boating or skating, why cannot our distinguished engineers who compose the "B. F. P." have the work-house stockpile established at the back end of the park, and have a long run of long rafts running from the picnic grounds back to the Clayton road? The lake could easily be made into a foot high in some places. It contains a lot of dead cats and rats that are in a mortifying condition and left there entirely to rot. To verify this statement, let one stand at the mouth of the alley on O'Fallon street when the wind is blowing south, and he will soon receive a $200 gift.

MONEY.

NEW YORK, July 18, 11 a. m.—The stock market was again extremely dull this morning, and although there was considerable irregularity in the opening prices, the market with last evening's closing figures, most stocks were lower and the market was percent. In the regular list, Atchafalpa was the only really active stock, and with Missouri

Pacific and the two trusts. Lead and sugar gave the market what little character it possessed.

Weakness prevailed throughout the day, but sugar took the lead, and after opening up at 11.10, dropped 1/16 in 1884. Lead advanced 1/16 to 2 1/16, and Northern Pacific advanced 1/16 to 10 1/16. The movements in the rest were confined to small fractions, but New England and the hour became more active and lost 1/16 to 1/8. The general list, however, displayed a stronger tone and a partial recovery took place. At 11 o'clock the market was dull and fairly steady at small fractions under the opening prices.

Non-metallics were easy at 2 1/2 per cent. Bar silver, 91 1/2. The stock market remained with out change in points of dullness after 11 o'clock and the weakness of the early dealings again became more pronounced. The market was touched in most cases. Atchafalpa was the only feature of importance, and after recovering to 10 1/16, it dropped to 10 1/16. Lead and sugar were devoid of other feature, even the trusts being dull and without much movement. At noon the market was dull and fairly steady at small

fractions under the opening prices. At 1 o'clock
